With only one owner and very low mileage for its age at just 12745 miles, this 2021 Audi TT Black Edition is a superb find. The vehicle is equipped with a responsive 2.0L petrol engine and complies with Euro 6 emission standards. The Black Edition trim adds a touch of sporty sophistication to this iconic model. Equipped with practical features such as rear parking sensors, including parking assistance, manoeuvring is made simple. LED headlights with LED rear lights and dynamic rear indicators not only enhance visibility but also add to the car's sleek aesthetic. Inside, you'll find heated front seats for added comfort, manual air conditioning, and a light and rain sensor for automatic headlight activation. The fuel economy of 42 mpg and low CO2 emissions mean that this vehicle is more efficient than other similar vehicles.
