This is a Peugeot 3008 GT BlueHDi, registered in 2022. As a car with a 1.5L diesel engine and a Euro 6 emission class, this vehicle comes with the GT trim. It boasts several features designed for convenience and safety, including front and rear parking sensors to make parking easier. The full LED headlights, which feature static cornering lighting and daytime running light extensions, improve visibility. The visibility pack ensures the headlights come on automatically when needed. For seamless smartphone integration, Mirror Screen with Apple CarPlay and Android Auto is included. This Peugeot 3008 stands out with its impressive fuel economy of 61 mpg, meaning fewer trips to the petrol station and more money in your pocket compared to similar vehicles. With only one previous owner, this car also offers a large boot space and low CO2 emissions, making it an excellent choice for those who need practicality without compromising environmental responsibility.
