The Dacia Sandero Stepway TCe Comfort, registered in 2021, is a practical car with a 0.9L petrol engine and a Euro 6 emission class. The Comfort trim includes manual air conditioning, ensuring a comfortable environment inside the car, and Bluetooth connectivity for seamless smartphone integration. With only 21369 miles on the clock, this Sandero Stepway also features rear parking sensors, making parking and maneuvering easier and safer. One of the car's key strengths is its large boot space. This is a significant advantage over similar vehicles, offering ample room for luggage, shopping, or any other items you need to transport. The Sandero Stepway combines functionality with useful features, making it a great option for those seeking a dependable and practical vehicle.
