Petrol Plug-in Hybrid

The 2022 Hyundai Santa Fe 1.6L Petrol Plug-in Hybrid T-GDi Premium, presented here in Premium trim, combines practicality with modern technology. This car comes with four-wheel drive and boasts a low mileage of just 26598 miles, having had only one previous owner. The interior is equipped with a KRELL Premium Audio 10-speaker system, complete with an external amplifier and subwoofer, ensuring an immersive audio experience. Parking is made easy with front and rear parking sensors, complemented by a rear camera and guidance system. For added comfort, especially on colder days, the vehicle includes a heated steering wheel. Bluetooth connectivity with voice recognition further enhances the driving experience. This vehicle conforms to Euro 6 emission standards. With seven seats, this Santa Fe is ideal for larger families or those needing extra passenger space. The large boot offers a significant amount of storage, making it more practical than similar vehicles in its class.
