With only one previous owner, this 2021 Nissan Navara dCi N-Guard is a reliable and well-maintained pick-up. The Navara, with its robust 2.3L diesel engine and four-wheel drive, is the dCi N-Guard derivative with the N-Guard trim and meets Euro 6 emission standards. It comes equipped with several features designed for convenience and safety, including a rear-view camera with parking assistance, Nissan Intelligent Key for keyless entry, and automatic headlights with a follow-me-home function. The LED headlights with a black bezel inlay add a touch of style, while the automatic dual-zone climate control with a pollen filter ensures a comfortable cabin environment. One of the great things about this vehicle is its impressive towing capacity of 3500 kg, meaning it's capable when you need it to be. You can also expect around 38 miles per gallon, which means fewer trips to the pump.
